My daily routine

I get up at 7.00 o'clock then I go to the kitchen and have breakfast. When I have enough time I have a shower, wash my hair and put on make-up. Finally I leave home and go to school.

My sister always wakes up at 5.30. She gets dressed and never has breakfast. It is very unhealthy. Then she packs her bag and walks to the bus stop. The bus leaves at 6.15.

My job

I work as a trainee shop assistant in a small shop. I go to work by bus and it takes me 20 minutes. I start to work at 7.20 every day. First I unlock the door from the storage room. Then I put some goods to the shelves and I wait for the guests to serve them.

My family and my pet

I live in a small house with my family. My parents work in Liberec, so they have to commute to work. My mother is 45 and she is a secretary, my father is 47 and he works as an electrician. I have two brothers. Tom, who is younger than me and goes to primary school and Filip, who is much older than me. He has his own family and they live in Tanvald. I share my room with Tom. We have an aquarium with fish there and a cage with a hamster. He is one year old, he eats grain and he loves nuts. I feed our fish every evening. They have their own dried food.

Places in my town

I live in a small town in the Jizera mountains. It is called Jablonec nad Nisou and it is near the city of Liberec. I live on a hill opposite a small shop. It is the place where I buy things and there works a shop assistant, who serves me. I go there every second day to buy some bread and cheese. Not far from the shop there is a small library. It is a place where a librarian works. She takes care of books and I borrow books there every Wednesday, because it is open until 6.00 o'clock p.m. I go there after the training which I have in a sports hall. It is a modern building and the trainer who works there trains me in the newly equipped gym.
